

Zoom Series from Oct. 11-17 (2022) – The Personality of God: An SDA Pillar Doctrine

Description

UPDATE: The series referenced in this post is now over. You can watch recordings of all the meetings in the playlist embedded below.

We have a series of Zoom Meetings that'll start in just a couple of days on an incredibly important topic: The Personality of God. This was a major doctrine in early Seventh-day Adventism that presents us with a radically different view of what God is. Whether you're SDA or not, you should find it very interesting. In the series, we'll be approaching the subject from several different angles. You can get an overview of those angles by looking at the schedule below.

If you'd like to get a taste of the topic explained in a broader context (that is, broader than Seventh-day Adventism), I recommend reading (or listening to) a series of 7 articles/podcasts I just produced, partly to set the stage for the upcoming meetings. Here's a list of the articles/podcasts:

1. Dirt We Are \(Israelite Anthropology\) – Podcast Version
2. Israel's Despiritualizing Philosophy – Podcast Version
3. Cognitive Kidneys \(Israelite Anthropology\) – Podcast Version
4. To Dirt You Will Return \(Israelite Anthropology\) – Podcast Version
5. Resurrection: The Only Hope of Future Life – Podcast Version
6. Jesus: A Purely Material Person – Podcast Version
7. God: A Purely Material Person – Podcast Version

The image below contains the schedule for the meetings and then below that I give some additional details and the link for joining.

NOTE: We're keeping the image below so you can conveniently see the order, titles, and presenters of the meetings.
