

Beyond the Purple Box

Description

Beyond the Purple Box

What has the party system done for you?
It's dividing your family, and your friends too!

Don't you see? It's tribalism Chieftains vie by libel – schism

How much do you really know about virology?
Foreign relations? Finance? Climatology?

Most receive what they believe in forming group identity
But beliefs from chiefs – epistemic griefs – obscenity

There is a better way Partyless governance where knowledge and ability hold sway

In proportion to your truth should be your power position by fitness, not ivory tower

All have a chance to have a say but only through testing will your words weigh

Kingdoms rise and fall
The status quo above all

But while it remains let us take pains to learn a better way

The groundwork has been laid Now needed is your aid

But first you must wipe your feet from the dust of your political team Awake from your paralytical dream

Grab ahold of your tribal flag edge Tear it and burn it with all its baggage

From its ashes shall arise no thing except the stench of former loathing

Now freed from left and right wing Let's join together, starting small we'll sing,

Their team is red Their team is blue but let us instead seek what is True
