

Prophecy Studies

Description

Doug Mitchell's writings on prophecy are detailed, comprehensive, and incredibly relevant. They show how the ancient prophecies of Ezekiel, Daniel, John the Revelator, and others relate to the history and moral condition of the Seventh-Day Adventist church. They also shed light on how the divine plan of redemption outlined by the ancient prophets will finally come to fruition. Our co-operation with the divine will is essential, and the prophetic vision of our potential future is a plea for all who have ears to hear to arise, shake ourselves from the dust, and breathe in the first breaths of a new life.
